BOSTON LIGHT & SOUND WELCOMES LORI HARRIS, HOLLYWOOD EVENTS PROFESSIONAL, TO BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT TEAM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 22, 2018

Boston Light & Sound (BL&S), a company known for delivering first-class audiovisual experiences for major Hollywood studios and film festivals for more than 40 years, is proud to welcome Lori Harris to its business development team. Lori will be instrumental in establishing new business relationships and reinforcing existing ones, primarily in the California film production industry.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Lori has been creating extraordinary events in the entertainment industry for more than 20 years. Her strengths lie in her ability to cultivate strong and lasting relationships with her clients and to interpret their ideas and vision and turn them into memorable experiences.

"We are very excited to bring Lori's knowledge and experience to our company and clients. She has shown a real talent for understanding her client's needs. In conjunction with our audiovisual capabilities and services, we know that Lori will be an asset. We're pleased to have her as a member of our team," says Chapin Cutler, President of BL&S.

"I am honored and excited to be a part of the BL&S family!" says Lori. "I believe that because of the solid, professional reputation BL&S has gained throughout their tenure coupled with my many years of industry experience and relationships, this venture will prove to be a very successful partnership. I look forward to maintaining close ties with our current clients as well as forging new relationships with those we have yet to work with."

Located in Santa Monica, CA, Lori will work with the Boston-based BL&S Production Department. Additionally, BL&S will be maintaining a substantial inventory of equipment in the Los Angeles area, including D-Cinema equipment and a screen system used for large Dolby Cinema presentations.

BL&S technical consultants have helped create extraordinary audiovisual experiences for hundreds of film premiere and screening events for clients such as Universal Studios, Warner Bros, Sony Pictures and Walt Disney Studios, and have worked with countless film festivals including Sundance, Telluride, Tribeca, Dubai, TCM Classic amongst many others.
